

Good morning everyone,

I hope you all had a good weekend and are ready for another week at school. It looks as though the weather this week will be more suitable for home learning!

We have now put a few more of your Easter activity photos on the website in the Covid-19 section, so do check them out.

It has been really lovely to see some of the art work your children have been producing over the last few weeks. Thank you for sending those in. We wonder if you would like to take up our WEEKEND ART CHALLENGE? Can you create a piece of art work in the style of a famous artwork or artist? You can either paint or draw a piece of work in the style of an artist, for example Monet, Picasso or Andy Goldsworthy, or recreate a famous picture yourself and take a photo – maybe dressing up like the Mona Lisa or Van Gough. Here are a couple of ideas:

Send a Quentin Blake E-Card

QUENTIN BLAKE RAINBOWS

ANNABELLE ROWLAND RAINBOW

BANKSY STREET ART

GILES STREET ART

ROB JENSON (ART FOR KIDS HUB) Great site!

ROGERS CARTOON WORK

Whilst we are celebrating achievements, huge Congratulations must go to one our pupils, Marley Streete.

Marley and his mum cycled 27miles for their 2.6 challenge.

What a wonderful achievement and we hope you

Both had padded protection over those bumps in the road! Ouch!

First News

First News are offering free access for a limited period of time. This weekly newspaper aims to get children talking about the news in an easy to understand and non-threatening way. Perfect for children aged between 7 and 14 years.

On a final note, we know some of you still have a few burning questions so we are hoping to set up a chance for you to join us for an informal twitter live-stream called 'Tea at two'. Grab a cuppa, sit back and feel connected as ever. It's a chance to share reflections from your day and answer questions. This is a light hearted chat! More info to follow. If anyone has used a twitter live-stream then do get in touch with Mrs Rogers as this may take her some time to learn!

Stay safe and please keep connected.
